Gov. Lurleen Wallace Dies In Sleep Today

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace, 41, whose compassion for the afflicted symbolized her brief career as a public official, died in her sleep today after a two-year battle against cancer.

Her husband, George, whom she succeeded as governor 16 months ago, and her four children were at her bedside in the white-columned executive mansion when the end came at 12:34 a.m.

Immediately on her death, Lt. Gov. Albert Brewer, 39-year-old Decatur, Ala., attorney, became governor under Alabama's law of succession.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced. Despite the recurring cancer which caused three operations in two years, there was no known evidence that Mrs. Wallace had been stricken with another malignancy since a small tumor was removed from her pelvic wall last Feb. 22.

But there were obvious debilitating aftereffects which tore away her resistance and ultimately left her too weak to fight back. Friends said she weighed only 65 pounds.

The immediate cause of death was not made known in the official announcement from acting news secretary Ed Ewing. His voice quivering with emotion, Ewing said the governor "lost her gallant fight for life at 12:34 a.m. Tuesday, May 7. She died quietly in her sleep."

Scholarship To Honor Britton

MIDLAND (AP) — A scholarship foundation is being established in honor of Dr. Ernest Britton, Midland school superintendent, by the Greater Midland Chamber of Commerce. Britton, who is retiring June 30, has been superintendent since July 1, 1946. He served in a similar post for 11 years in Effingham, Ill.

Hubert, Bobby Face Electors Today

Four States Hold Primaries On Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey face their first 1968 primary tests today in two of five elections around the nation.

The primaries are in Indiana, Ohio, Alabama, Florida and the District of Columbia.

Kennedy's major test is in the Indiana primary against Democratic presidential rival Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy—and Gov. Roger D. Branigan who was expected to get some Humphrey supporters' votes.

In the District of Columbia primary, Humphrey and Kennedy slates are competing for Washington's 23 delegate nominating votes at the Democratic National Convention.

In other political developments:

—Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, campaigning in Nebraska for the May 14 primary there, called for a new diplomacy to deal with any future Communist aggression.

There should be diplomacy, he said in Omaha, "so that when the freedom of friendly nations is threatened by aggression, we help them fight the war and don't fight the war for them."

—In final Indiana campaign bids, Kennedy traveled through northwest industrial sections and McCarthy through Indianapolis. Branigan called estimated large numbers of undecided voters "a good sign" for his candidacy.

—Humphrey accentuated the positive at a luncheon in New York City. "I do not believe America is sick," he said. "It is leaving the age of innocence and coming into its maturity."

—Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden, 90—elected Arizona's first U.S. congressman in 1912—announced he will retire early next year. He has been in Congress nearly 57 years, longer than any other man.

Nixon was unchallenged in Indiana and no write-in votes were permitted. His supporters have fought a Democratic drive for GOP crossover votes to Branigan, which would hurt Nixon's Indiana showing.

In the Kennedy-Humphrey District of Columbia confrontation, there were two slates for Humphrey—one inherited after President Johnson announced he would not run. And there was a Kennedy slate.

The Alabama primary was held in a pall of sorrow following the death earlier in the day of Gov. Lurleen Wallace, who

Claim Plot For Poor March Riot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan says he'll expose plans by parties as yet unnamed to turn the Poor People's Campaign in Washington into a riot.

The Arkansas Democrat, chairman of a Senate investigations subcommittee, said he'll reveal what the panel uncovered about discussions by persons he said plan to move in during the planned nonviolent demonstration and "engage in rioting and battling."

His comments in the Senate came as Congress was considering Monday 26 bills aimed at limiting use of federal property by demonstrators for camp-ins.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is organizing caravans of poor people heading for Washington from Southern towns and cities across the nation.

The SCLC has not revealed where the demonstrators will camp while in Washington but reportedly favors building a "shanty town" on the Mall, between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument.

The first contingent of the Poor People's Campaign is due in Washington Monday. Campaign planners say they expect up to 15,000 demonstrators in the city by May 27.

One congressman, Democrat Alton Lennon of North Carolina, told a House subcommittee Monday he thinks 250,000 people will converge on Washington.

Lennon is one of the sponsors of legislation prohibiting issuance of permits for any camp-in.

Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., told the subcommittee the primary objective of the demonstration is to cause trouble despite what its leaders say.

"They're not concerned about the welfare of the average poor person," Colmer said. "They're coming here to cause trouble." Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., said the capital city is so gripped with fear that federal troops should be stationed in the streets now. He said that in addition to the planned campaign, the crime rate is a factor in this fear.

Kennedy Thanks State Volunteers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, Monday thanked Michigan volunteers for helping organize a Kennedy for President Committee.

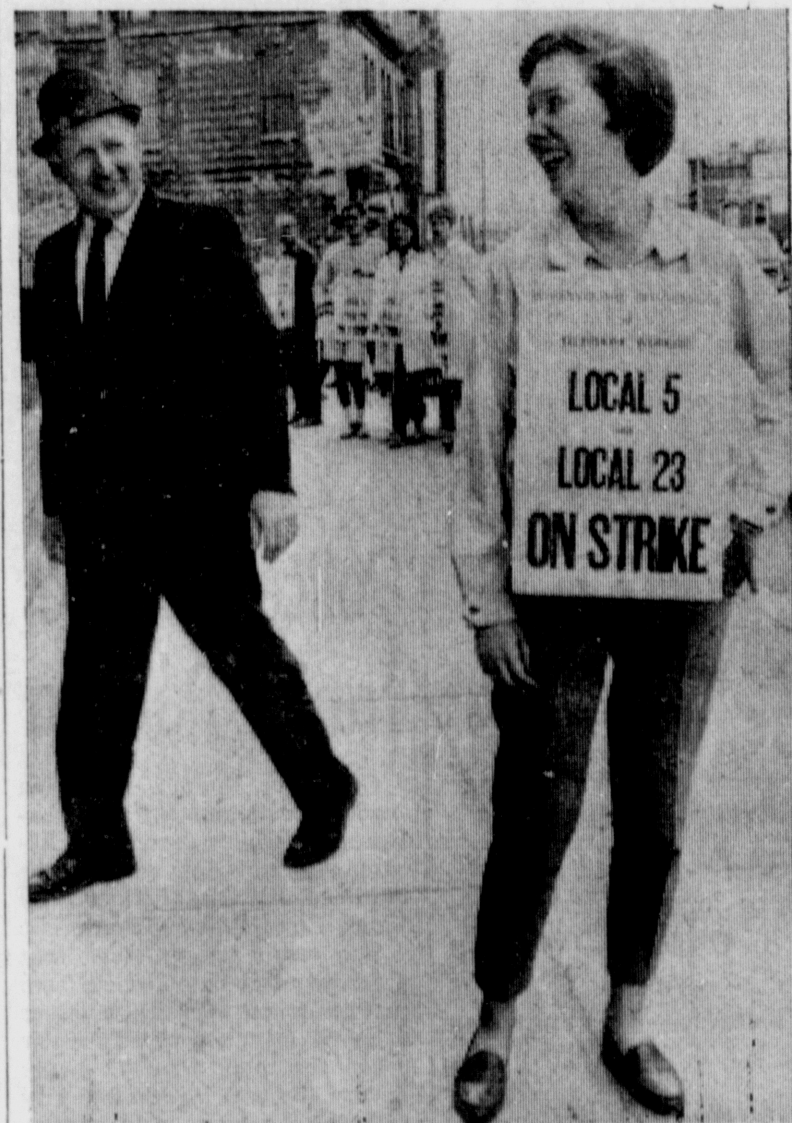

The state Kennedy headquarters was established in downtown Detroit.

NO HARD FEELINGS, as you can see by the looks of Joseph Dansereau, 46, of Lincoln, R.I., passing one of the pickets — his daughter, Janice, 18, at Pawtucket, R.I., phone company building. When the telephone strike began, father and daughter found themselves on opposite sides of the union dispute — he's a non-striking supervisor, Janice is a teletype operator, a member of the striking International Brotherhood of Telephone Workers whose officials say no meetings with management are scheduled at this time. Order New Vote For Phone Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—The executive board of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America has ordered its 23,000-member installers unit to conduct a new ratification vote on a proposed three-year contract with the Western Electric Co.

The board's action, taken Monday, was aimed at removing the last barrier to final settlement of the national telephone strike. The board said it would expect the installers to work until the new balloting was completed.

Western Electric, the manufacturing and installing arm of the Bell Telephone System, said in a statement it had agreed to put the terms of the new contract into effect immediately, including retroactivity, provided the installers' ratification was completed by May 19.

The Western Electric agreement proposal also called for an immediate halt of picketing and a prompt return to work of employees still on strike.

The union announced in Washington Sunday that the 18-day national strike had been settled.

But the installers' unit, whose contract is a pattern setter in the industry, charged irregularities in the vote and ignored a union order to return to work. The executive board said on Monday there had been irregularities.

Installers continued picketing Monday at central offices of the New York Telephone Co. here, and plant workers and many operators who were not on strike refused to cross the picket lines.

A spokesman for the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. said the picketing continued also in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Michigan, downstate Illinois, and the New England states except Connecticut.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's income tax hike bill, cold-shouldered since last summer by the House Ways and Means Committee, is basking in the relative warmth of the panel's qualified endorsement.

But the congressional fight has escalated over the size of a proposed spending cut tied to the tax boost.

Making its first formal decision on the $10 billion income tax increase request, the committee voted for the hike Monday provided federal spending is cut at least $4 billion.

The House Appropriations Committee had previously recommended this figure and Johnson has said he would accept it, although reluctantly.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the Ways and Means Committee called the panel's action "a surrender and a capitulation" in the face of White House urgings. The committee's vote for the tax bill was 17 to 6, with 13 Democrats and 4 Republicans supporting it. Byrnes and other Republicans opposed it.

Rescue Units Hampered By Rising Water

HOMINY FALLS, W.Va. (AP) — The call went out for skin divers today to aid in the rescue of 25 coal miners trapped inside a two-mile coal shaft by thousands of gallons of water.

The divers were due in from Philadelphia before noon to aid the miners trapped in the low, L-shaped mine shaft since noon Monday.

Surface rescue units, which worked through a night of near freezing temperatures, had made telephone contact with 15 of the entombed men. The other 10 were at the low end of the flooded shaft and had not been heard from since water poured through a mine wall from an adjacent abandoned mine.

The officials hoped the three divers equipped with scuba, self-contained underwater breathing apparatus, could make their way to the miners with air tanks and possibly food.

Food Goes Through Rescue directors scored a breakthrough when they lashed plastic tubes containing water, sandwiches and hot coffee to the mine conveyor belt to the 13 trapped nearest the entrance.

The packages went in at 4:44 a.m. and 13 minutes later, the radiotelephone crackled with the word, "We got 'em."

One and a half hours after the first food packages were sent in, blankets and a large oxygen cylinder followed. The items were lashed to the conveyor belt in the same manner as the food packages.

"I know 15 of the guys are going to be okay," said Ernest Fitzwater, who escaped from the mine just before it became flooded.

No Way Out! But he said the 10, including his brother, Joe, are at the deepest part. "There is no way they can get out alive."

The men were chipping coal from the wall of the mine, located about 70 miles southeast of Charleston in southeastern West Virginia, when they punched through into an abandoned mine filled with water.

A wall of water, one official said, cascaded through and isolated the crew in the passage-way too low for a man to stand up straight.

Fifteen Are O. K. The men who are marooned one mile from the mine's entrance "are unharmed, high and dry and safe," officials of the Gauley Coal and Coke Co., operators of the mine, said Monday night.

C.E. Richardson, president of the Maust Coal and Coke Corp., parent firm of the Gauley company, said, "We know 15 of the men are O.K. As for the other 10 ... well, we just haven't heard anything from them. And we don't know how much water is down there."

"It's impossible to say how many thousands of gallons of water are down there. The pumps are working pretty good but the water level is rising."

Drill From Top The men who rescuers felt were in good shape were on fairly high ground. The passage way, with a floor much like a gentle roller coaster, has a 20 degree slope as it falls away from the entrance. The 10 miners not heard from were at the end of the shaft at its lowest part.

There were attempts to drill air holes from the top of the mountain to let in fresh air and possibly lower food to the entombed men.

One of the problems confronting rescue units was that of the pumps' inability to drain the water as fast as it rose.

Livonia Reserves On Duty May 13

The 424th Personnel Company of Livonia will go on active duty next Monday. The first week, according to the unit commander, Captain Edwin J. Duda, will be spent at the Livonia Reserve Center, then the unit will be flown to Ft. Hood, Tex., for a few months and then will go overseas.

Yanks Join Saigon Battle

SAIGON (AP) — American tanks and armored personnel carriers joined the new battle of Saigon today, cutting off a Viet Cong attack from the southwest in the third day of hard fighting on the city's fringes.

U.S. troops had not been used inside Saigon since they helped smash the Viet Cong's lunar new year offensive in February. In the latest assaults, which began Sunday, the Americans have been outside the capital searching the enemy units which might further threaten the city.

U.S. officers believed the enemy thrusts both around Saigon and in South Vietnam's northern sector were aimed at giving the North Vietnamese a bargaining edge when preliminary peace talks with the United States open in Paris this week.

In the north, officers reported one enemy force surrounded near Hue and others withdrawing from around Dong Ha after losing more than 1,000 men in six days of close-quarter fighting.

The battle in southwest Saigon today began when an estimated 150 Viet Cong trying to push into the city attacked a South Vietnamese outpost near the Kinh Doi Canal.

Armored personnel carriers from the U.S. 9th Infantry Division moved in to cut them off. The infantrymen reported killing 35 enemy soldiers, and five Americans were wounded.

The fighting subsided for a time, and the surviving Viet Cong made a break for the bridge across the canal and into the city. But a second company of 9th Division armored personnel carriers got to the bridge first and pushed the Viet Cong into a factory building.

South Vietnamese rangers took up blocking positions east of the factory, and the American armored force moved in on the trapped Viet Cong.

A survey of agencies reveals that approximately 250 people with handicaps that render them dependent on society live in the tri-county area. These people are able to become independent to a degree, if they have an opportunity, such as a sheltered workshop, from which they can function. There are many more handicapped people in the tri-county area, but the survey indicated that only

In order to function, a sheltered workshop needs contracts for service from industry, or it needs a product of its own. Sheltered workshops are production-oriented and can be maintained with minimal financial assistance if their contracts with industry, or their production and marketing of products manufactured in the workshop are of the type that provide a commercial income.

EAST LANSING (AP) — The board of directors of the Michigan Education Association has adopted a resolution urging national recognition of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on par with the birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. The association is urging that all its 1.1 million members combine efforts to petition state legislators, Congress and the President to enact legislation making Jan. 15 a day of national recognition for the slain civil rights leader.

The total for the 12 months of 1967 was 16,132 and with the decrease already noted in the first four months it is anticipated the total for 1968 will be substantially higher.

Also, population density and the proximity of plants for processing the fish entered into the picture. Long stated that the idea was to give the most fisherman possible the chance to catch the fish, and more important, that the sites would afford protection to the boats and fisherman.

Facilities for handling surpluses is very important, Long continued. Thus, the fish were planted in the Haymeadow instead of the Whitefish itself.

Towards this end, the Recreational Resource Council has been developed, to promote the recreational, historical and scenic values of this area. One of the programs which they have in the planning stage is an "Anglethon", in which awards will be presented to various fishermen for various categories. This is just one of the projects that have been started to make this area once again the popular fishing center it once was, Long said.

Helping Robinson's

There's a great spirit in the work force at Robinson's furniture factory at Jam Dam in northern Menominee County. When the factory burned a week ago many of the men and women who worked there sought aid to encourage rebuilding. Bulldozers were busy clearing the site before all the embers were cold and they were all supplied free by persons of good will who wanted to make a contribution to recovery.

The factory which burned wasn't insured. The workers at Robinson's, who are working to save the business and revive their jobs, are raising a fund to buy a fire engine to be stationed at Jam Dam.

It would protect the new Robinson factory and it would make possible lower fire insurance rates than are now available with no fire protection. The volunteer fire department, of course, would serve all of Gourley Township and not just the Robinson furniture factory and thus create a general benefit. The Jam Dam community is impressed with the volunteer fire organizations at Bark River, Carney and Powers-Spalding and it wants one, too.

Donations to the Future of Robinson's fire engine fund can be sent to the fund at the First National Bank & Trust Co. in Escanaba.

The community which is making the effort to save its economy is an unusual one. Gourley Township was the last township created in Menominee County and it is the only geographical township. (The term is used in both a surveyor's sense and a governmental sense; a geographical township is a square, six miles by six miles.)

It was hacked off the top of Cedarville Township, which had already been much bartered to create other townships, as Menominee County, created by the Legislature in 1863, became settled. The original two townships were Menominee, on the west and Cedarville on the east, the two of them composing the entire county.

The Gourley Lumber Co. had a sawmill at Gourley, the biggest industry which the township had had, with a logging railroad — the Indiantown & Southern — running down from the Chicago & North Western Railway at Indiantown to serve it. When the sawmill closed only woods work was left as an employment; that and farming, which supported most of Gourley's people.

The Seventh Day Adventist Church became the strongest influence at Jam Dam on the Big Cedar River. Its people created their own parochial school and it served such a large part of the local population that the need for the public school disappeared and it was sold and moved away.

In the past 18 years Robinson Furniture Manufacturing, Inc., has been the biggest local provider of employment. At the time the plant burned it was providing income for 90 families at Jam Dam and in branch operations at Escanaba, Gladstone and Nadeau. Its monthly business volume had attained $100,000. It also provided a market for mixed hardwoods produced in the Menominee-Delta county area which were manufactured into rocking chairs for a national market.

A business which Earl Robinson started in a barn left to produce play houses and which later turned to production of juvenile furniture had been developed to this large size. The signs on the highway do not say "To Jam Dam" but "To Robinson's."

The results are evident even to the casual driver on Menominee County Road 551 which passes through Jam Dam on its way from US-241 down through the Menominee State Forest to connect with M-35. The people of Gourley have remained on their farms and the rural community remains intact where so many others like it have disappeared with the decline in farming. Robinson's has made the difference. It provided employment — often for both husbands and wives — so that people could stay on the land.

Instead of bringing the factory workers to the city, Earl Robinson brought the factory to the country workers. Unfortunately, he didn't bring a city fire department with it. This the rural workers of Gourley hope to change now. They can be helped by contributions to the Future of Robinson's Fund to provide a fire engine.

RECONSTRUCTION CONTINUES at Fort Michilimackinac, founded in 1715 as the Straits of Mackinac by the French as a western outpost to protect the fur trade. Archaeologists work summer-long uncovering the past and rebuilding the fort as it was in the 18th century. Visitors see both the digging and the finished product and can hear an electronic re-enactment of a wedding performed in the Church of St. Anne de Michilimackinac some 200 years ago. Mackinaw's Past Being Restored

Ships longer than two football fields now glide under the mighty Mackinac Bridge that joins Michigan's two peninsulas but in its shadow, where birch bark canoes once landed, archaeologists literally are now turning back the sands of time. They're uncovering two centuries of drifting sand to reconstruct a time of adventure, of treachery, of intrigue, of cannibalism—a time when the Straits of Mackinac was inhabited by voyageurs, French and British soldiers, fur trappers and traders, the Chippewa and Ottawa Indians.

The site is Fort Michilimackinac, (that's Mish-il-uh-mac-uh-naw), at Mackinac City at the top of Michigan's lower peninsula. Under the direction of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, archaeologists from Michigan State University are rebuilding the fort as it was 200 years ago when it was a key western outpost for the lucrative fur trade.

Coupled with the Fort Michilimackinac findings and research in Canadian and English archives, the archaeologists have pieced together precisely the plans of the fort, its buildings and the village outside its gates.

The fort was founded in 1715 by the French as both a fur outpost and jumping-off spot for further Great Lakes exploration. The British took control in 1761 at the conclusion of the French and Indian War.

The Indians, however, had their revenge on the British in the 1763 massacre when they gained entry to the fort by a ruse during a convoluted lacrosse game and slaughtered most of the English garrison, but spared the French-speaking traders. It was part of a general Great Lakes uprising inspired by Chief Pontiac.

British Rule
The British retook the fort in 1764 and held it until the Revolutionary War when they abandoned it, moving to nearby Mackinac Island which offered a better defensive position. Fort Michilimackinac was then left to be covered by the drifting, blowing sand until 1959.

Among the central figures in the fort's history was Alexander Henry, a British fur trader whose journal recorded the horror of the 1763 massacre.

Through the intercession of an Indian friend, Henry's life was spared and he witnessed the cannibalism of a less fortunate prisoner who the Indians "chose as the fattest, cut off the head and divided the whole into five parts, one of which each was put into five kettles."

Major Robert Rogers' fate was somewhat better—he was taken from the court in chains, accused of being a traitor in 1767 and sent to Montreal for a court martial. He was acquitted but life wasn't the same again for him.

Rogers, a hero of the French and Indian War as leader of Rogers' Rangers, dreamed of finding a northwest passage to the Pacific while commandant of Fort Michilimackinac but the expedition was a failure and led to his arrest.

The commanding officer's house, where Rogers lived, is among the houses restored at the fort. The latest restoration is that of Charles Langlade's house. Langlade, a native of the Straits, helped lead an Indian war party that routed British General Braddock's western Pennsylvania expedition in 1755. And it was Langlade's house in which Henry sought refuge from the Indians during the massacre.

Archaeologists also have found the blacksmith's forge and the foundation of the priest's house next to the already reconstructed Chapel of St. Anne de Michilimackinac where Langlade's wedding is re-created electronically for visitors several times daily by means of spotlights, sequence lighting and stereophonic sound.

Fort Michilimackinac had a normal population of approximately 500 persons which rose to 2,000 to 3,000 during the peak of the fur trading season.

The fort is much more popular today—and more readily accessible — thanks to Michigan's excellent highway system; Interstate 75 runs right next to the fort.

Summer visitors can see history in the "un-covering." Excavation is in progress summer-long and an underground exhibit shows at what levels various artifacts were found. The ground now is five to six feet higher than it was two centuries ago.

In addition, the quarters are furnished as they were at the time of the American Revolution and dioramas depict life as it was then on the western frontier. Fort Michilimackinac is open throughout the summer months.

BLACK POWER

Mrs. Jean Kasun of Route 1, Bark River, writes: "A report presented to the First Unitarian Church of Chicago by the husband of a friend of mine from grade school days interests me. My friend is a Negro and I believe the members of this church are both black and white."

"Howard Harris, a member of the church wrote in part in 'Black Power — A Minority Report' that: 'In the light of the past 300 years this pitting of man against man, race against race, was inevitable. Take no refuge in the excuse that we are not ready for the white community has gone to great lengths in the past 300 years to see that we were not and has only itself to blame.'"

"I feel anger and revulsion at the inequities which have been my lot as a Negro, and am shaken to the roots of my soul by our inability to shape our own destiny for the sin of color. I differ only in degree."

papers — have in the main carefully presented the more outrageous and incongruous aspects of what has been referred to as Black Power. When the creature of their making grew into a monster they piously disclaimed the charge of fatherhood.

"The unfortunate commentary on white society is that it took violence and destruction to cause it to look at the plight of the American Negro."

"Black Power is not the looting and destruction of cities. Not the boycotting of schools for want of a cheerleader. Not wanton assault on another human being because his skin happens to be white. Not immunity from law and order."

"Black Power is an informed and intelligent exercise of the right of franchise, more judicious expenditure of the fruits of one's labor, search for higher education and new skills, refusal to be exploited and the fulfillment of all the obligations which first class citizenship implies."

"Black Power will in the long run fail to become the menace so many fear and fall far short of the panacea its rabid adherents hope it will provide. Power is not divisible by color. The direction Black Power will ultimately take is wholly dependent upon the white community. Whether it will follow a course of violence and destruction or constructive and evolutionary change is predicated upon your response to the needs of our age. . . . We must find the answer to how we can all best live together on this earth. Our children will have to ponder the cussiness or failure of our endeavors."

West's one no-trump overcall showed the equivalent of an opening no-trump. North's two-heart bid indicated a poor hand with heart support. With a good hand North would have doubled. East's three-diamond call was competitive, while South's jump to four hearts was the bid that anyone else would have made.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued with the ace. The late Sidney Silodor, who sat South, ruffed the second diamond and led hearts. West won the second heart and returned the suit, and Sidney was in dummy with two tricks lost and two more potential losers.

It would be simple enough to try both black finesses, but Sidney did not even consider that line of play. He simply counted up the points for a 16-18 no-trump and saw that West was marked with both the king of spades and queen of clubs. He had to find some way to eliminate one of those black losers.

One method would be to play his ace and queen of spades. If West held exactly two spades, he would be end-played then and there, but if West held two spades, East would hold five and would probably have bid some number of spades. So the spade play was out.

Only one line that could succeed remained and Sidney adopted it. He played ace, king and nine of clubs. He played the nine because it was just possible that, with an original holding of four clubs, West might decide that East held the jack and duck.

It wasn't likely that West would fall for this play, but it was likely that he didn't hold as many as four clubs. So Sidney played clubs and, when West took his queen, he went to lead away from his king of spades in order to avoid giving Sidney a ruff and discard.

Ann Landers

Complain To Those Who Sponsor Show

Dear Ann Landers: I am glad you printed the letter from the New York woman who was appalled at the remark by a contestant on TV. Since most of the shows are taped, why don't they edit out the vulgarities and offensive material? It seems to me the people who produce these shows are trying to see how much blue material they can use and get away with.

Last week a friend of mine who is a nun was a guest in our home. I decided to turn on the TV for a little entertainment. On that very same show a member of the cast, NOT a contestant asked the following question: "If you had a little buzzer system inserted in your navel and someone suddenly pushed that button, what would your reaction be?"

How much longer are we going to have garbage dumped into our living rooms?—R.F.G.
Dear R. F. G.: It's up to you and to all the others who don't want the garbage in your living room. I repeat: Write to the network, the local TV station, the sponsor—anyone and everyone connected with the show. Tell them you will not watch their programs or buy their products. When the ratings and sales drop through the cellar they'll know they can no longer substitute dirt for talent.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a registered nurse who would like to express a point of view in behalf of those of us who staff hospitals. I am not being dramatic when I say we are trained in the tradition of the theater. The show must go on, regardless of bad news from home, our own aches and pains, financial worries, in-law problems—whatever.

Illness does not give a patient the right to be abusive or downright nasty. Physicians, nurses and technicians do not wish to inflict pain or discomfort on patients, but often it is necessary in order to do the tests. Some patients act as if we hurt them purposely for some sadistic reasons.

After spending many years in hospitals I am firmly convinced that illness does not alter one's personality. Genuinely nice people remain nice, in spite of pain and misery. The nasty ones who use sickness as an excuse to be mean are fooling no one.—OLD STARCHY
Dear Old Starchy: One of the principal tests of maturity is the ability to tolerate discomfort and anxiety without taking it out on others. This holds true for the waitress, teacher, salesperson and secretary, as well as the physician, nurse, technician and patient.

Your statement that individuals who staff hospitals are trained in the theater is correct. But Shakespeare's statement was closer to the truth when he said: "All the world's a stage. And all the men and women—merely players."

Escanaba Has Purest Air In U.S. Say Scientists

By JEAN WORTH

If the chambers of commerce of Escanaba and Gladstone want to boast that they have the cleanest, least polluted air in the United States, they can get scientific certification from Atmospherics, Inc., of Fresno, Calif.

Thomas J. Henderson, president of Atmospherics, Inc., and his associate, Don Duckering, pilot-meteorologist, were in Escanaba on Saturday and Sunday on their third cross country flight for the Atmospherics Science Research Center of State University of New York, studying the effect of air pollution on weather and especially on precipitation.

"This is the cleanest place we've found," said Henderson. "We came here from Albany, N.Y., by way of Pennsylvania. When you're up 5,000 feet over Pittsburgh, Gary, Indiana, South Chicago, or Flint you can hardly breathe, but you'll probably be free of pollution here forever. Of all the places we've sampled, no place had as few particles in the air as this area."

Third Crossing

"This is our third flight across the nation. The first two were in the mid-area and on this flight we went east in the south and are returning west in the north."

"Our mission is to find the baselines of the air pollution problem and to map air pollution sources. Pollution may originate 50 or 60 miles from the problem area."

The meteorologists are flying a Piper Aztec two-motored plane filled with instruments to measure the particles of pollution in the air. A pipe with four air intakes juts from the nose of the plane and the air is carried back into the instruments in plastic tubing. Dry ice in the white (cold) boxes simulates the conditions of the atmosphere (with temperature of minus 20 degrees Centigrade) which produce ice crystals.

Instruments measure the freezing nuclei — the tiny particles in the air that nature uses to initiate precipitation inside a cloud, and also the condensation nuclei which nature uses to make a cloud in the first place.

The pollution is sometimes so heavy that it can be seen, as in smoke emerging from a smokestack, but usually it cannot be seen. It may amount to 10 million particles per cubic centimeter (per half inch cube).

The plane is also equipped with cloud seeding racks to hold cartridges which can be ignited electrically by the pilot and which burn for 3 minutes, sowing silver iodide into a cloud to form ice crystals. The fliers watch the glaciation of the cloud that follows in their study of the influence of pollution upon weather. If there's enough moisture in the cloud snow or rain results.

York, the great atmospheric researcher. A lot has been learned in the last four or five years about the atmosphere. On this flight we attended the first national symposium on weather modification of the American Meteorological Society.

"We wish we had started our studies earlier, as there has been an increase in air pollution. We're sure that there'll be studies from now on of the aerosol, which is all the particles floating about in the air."

THE "WHITE BOXES" in the plane at top of picture can chill air particles down to minus 20 degrees Centigrade to simulate cloud conditions in the upper air that cause crystallization and precipitation. The instruments measure the freezing nuclei — the tiny particles that nature uses to initiate precipitation (rain or snow). At top right and below are condensation nuclei counters to measure the influence by which nature makes a cloud in the first place.

North Western Income Climbs In 1st Quarter

Chicago & North Western Railway today reported consolidated net income of $3,036,384 for the first quarter of 1968 compared with $3,825,179 for the first quarter of 1967. Net income per common share, after retroactively reflecting the conversions of income bonds and preferred stock through March 31, 1968, was $1.10 compared with $1.58 a share last year.

Railway operating revenues were $59,778,196, up $1,685,064 from last year and net operating income was $1,564,448, an increase of $2,025,340 over the operating loss of $460,892 in the first quarter of 1967. Ben W. Heineman, chairman, stated that the improvement was due to the freight rate increase effective in August 1967, more favorable weather conditions in 1968 than in 1967, and improved utilization of freight equipment.

Rapid River OKs 5 Mills Handily

The Rapid River School District, comprising the townships of Masonville, Ensign and Bay de Noc at the head of Little Bay de Noc, voted overwhelmingly Monday for a 5 mill levy for operation of its schools.

The millage was a renewal of 3 mills which were expiring and authorization of an additional two mills required for operation of the schools under present costs.

The election was deflection of a great change in the thinking of the district about its public schools.

"The whole community is behind the schools now," said Waldon Johnson, president of the board of education. "The change is like day after night since we lost our school accreditation and everyone pitched in to improve the schools."

Schools Bettered
"We are upgrading the curriculum and the faculty and we're improving the physical plant and even the landscaping around the schools."

"When we called for volunteers to start modernizing of the school library and study hall 25 men showed up the first night and in two hours they had all the old desks out of the building and it was ready for carpeting."

The new millage will permit the district to hire two more teachers and also to purchase new equipment for the school's shop and business education rooms to continue the upgrading program.

Another teacher in the high school and one more elementary teacher will allow the district to reduce the student-teacher ratio to a level within the range recommended by the University of Michigan for accreditation.

Yes Wins Big
The district currently levies 14.7 mills for school operation. The vote was: Yes 329, No 133.

The vote by townships was: Masonville Township - Yes 210, No 106.

Ensign Township - Yes 84, No 11.

Bay de Noc Township - Yes 35, No 16.

Johnson said that Friday at 4 p.m. is the deadline for return of nominating petition for the election of board of education members to Supt. Richard W. Dye at the school.

There are three vacancies to be filled on the board and three persons have filed nominating petitions so far. They are Jack Miller, Jr., of Rapid River, who was appointed to an interim term; Floyd Roberts and Henry Vietzke, Jr., both of Whitefish.

Faint Disrupts Bank Robbery

CLIMAX (AP) — The bank robbery plans of two teen-age youths didn't get past the teller's window Monday.

Police in the southwestern Lower Michigan community of Climax said two youths, armed with a pistol and a sawed-off shotgun walked into the office of the First National Bank of Climax and announced a hold-up.

One youth approached a teller and demanded money. Before the teller could press the alarm, the youth fainted.

The unconscious youth was captured on the spot, but his partner fled. According to police, he ran from the bank and went to the home of a stranger. There, police said, he told a man he needed a ride to Fulton, about 15 miles south, because his wife was about to have a baby.

The man drove the youth to Fulton and, when he returned to Climax, heard of the robbery and called police. The second youth was captured a short time later in the town of Vicksburg, about 10 miles west of Fulton. Names of the youths have not been released.

Michigan Ballot Has 7 Parties

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's newest political party, the New Politics Party, filed for a spot on the Nov. 5 election ballot Monday—and may be running a candidate for president.

Representatives of the New Politics Party filed petitions bearing an estimated 18,500 signatures. The minimum number of valid signatures required to get on the ballot is 13,371.

Monday, at 5 p.m., was the deadline for a spot on the ballot.

Another late filer Monday afternoon was the Prohibition Party, a perennial entry among the minority parties. The anti-liquor group filed petitions with 14,474 claimed valid signatures.

Previously filing were the Socialist Workers and Socialist Labor Parties. The American Independent Party, pushing former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace for the presidency, filed petitions bearing 32,101 signatures with the secretary of state's office Friday.

The two late entries put five minority parties on the ballot in addition to the Republican and Democratic parties.

Careful Handling Saves Tiny Fish

EAST LANSING (AP) — A Michigan State University fisheries expert has some good advice on how to throw back small trout so they will grow up to become keepers.

Michigan law provides that trout must be seven inches long to qualify as keepers.

"Small trout must be released carefully," advises Eugene Roelofs, MSU professor of fisheries. "Rough handling will easily kill or injure them."

His tips include:
—Leave the trout in the water as you remove the hook.
—Never lay the trout on sand or gravel as you remove the hook.

"Don't hold the trout over the gills. These are the breathing organs and are easily damaged."

—Try not to hold the trout with a dry hand. This removes the protective slime, leaving it more susceptible to fungus and other skin diseases.

—When picking up the trout, handle it gently. Squeezing can damage the internal organs.

Earlier, an MSU researcher found out that when trout are reeled in quickly, they have a better chance of survival after release than those that are played to fatigue.

There also are some basic rules, known to every experienced angler, for making the most of the legal fish that are caught.

These include:

—Clean them as soon as you catch them.

—When cleaning the fish, make note of what they have been eating. This supplies your best tip for the most effective bait.

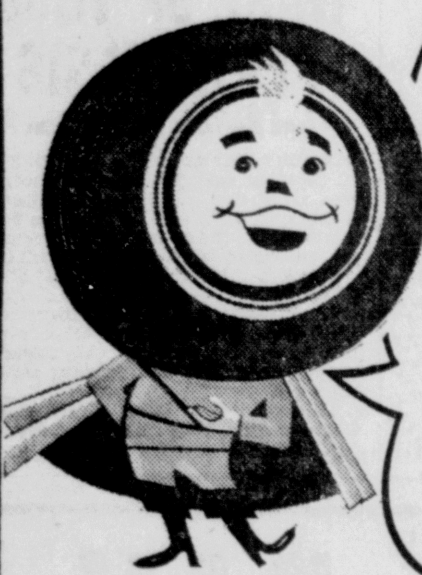

—Don't let fish lie exposed to the sun.

—The best creel to keep the trout fresh is a wicker one, allowing in air and lined with wet moss.

—If you have a garden, save the cleanings. They are magnificent fertilizer, especially for roses or tomato plants.

—Bring the fish home in plastic bags and on ice to keep them stream-fresh.

Township Officer Extended Terms Unconstitutional

PONTIAC (AP)—A 1967 state law that extended the terms of incumbent township officers by two years was declared unconstitutional Monday by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Legality of the law had been challenged by three Waterford Township residents. They filed suit last week after the Waterford Township clerk refused to accept their nominating petitions as candidates in the Aug. 8 primary. The petitions were rejected by the clerk on the basis that there would be no election this year for township offices under the new state law. It provided that township officials elected in 1966 would serve until Nov. 20, 1970, 18 months longer than normal. There was no immediate indication of whether today's decision would be appealed.

The Escanaba Softball Association plans a six-team National League for boys of high school age interested in playing softball this summer.

Games will be played twice a week at the Webster Diamond and under the lights at Memorial Field. In August an All-Star team will be chosen from the six National League teams to play in the U. P. and district softball tournaments. Home and home games with other cities will also be scheduled.

Dick Berlinski, former Kingsford athletic standout, re-injured his knee in spring football drills at Michigan State University and underwent surgery last Tuesday. Berlinski hopes to be fully recovered by the time the fall grid campaign begins.

Rapid River sophomore Dale Morin and Eben senior Jim Seppanen were double winners in a quadrangular track meet held Friday in Eben. Big Bay de Noc won the meet with 42 points and Rapid River finished second with 35 points.

Morin, holder of the Central League record in the low hurdles, won both hurdle events while Seppanen took top honors in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Both boys will be competing in the conference meet scheduled in Escanaba on Thursday.

The Iron Mountain Mountaineers have scheduled eight football games next fall, four at home and four away. The Mountaineers tangle with Ironwood, Escanaba, Menominee and Norway at home and wage battle with Holy Name, Kingsford, West Iron County and Hurley on the road.

Three records set last year by former Escanaba Eskymo track star Jim Bayle in last year's Great Northern Conference meet went untouched in this year's running of the event. Boyle holds records in the long jump and both hurdle events.

Records set by Dick Berlinski, the only other man with more than one record, also went unbroken. Berlinski holds marks in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, both set in 1965.

Kingsford Wins Triangular Meet

KINGSFORD — The thin-clads from Kingsford High School took first place in a triangular track meet with Iron Mountain and Escanaba Holy Name. Kingsford had a total of 61 points, Iron Mountain was second with 53 points and Holy Name trailed with 30.

Tim Kearney and Mark Berdinner of Kingsford and Al Schupp of Iron Mountain were the meet's only double winners. Kearney took top honors in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard dash while Berdinner copped wins in the 100-yard dash and the 180-yard low hurdles. Schupp was victorious in the mile run and the 880-yard run.

Kingsford had eight first place finishes to Iron Mountain's four and Holy Name's two.

Getting first places for the Crusaders were Pat Verhamme in the high jump and Nick Kinauk in the pole vault.

The Crusaders and Iron Mountain get back into action tomorrow in a triangular meet with Escanaba at the Escanaba Athletic Field.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dancer's Image, winner of the Kentucky Derby, was drugged before the race, Churchill Downs said today.

He will be disqualified, placed last, and all winnings turned over to Calumet Farm, owner of the second place horse, Forward Pass.

The track said a chemist for the state racing commission reported that an analysis of the urine sample taken from Dancer's Image "contained phenylbutacone and or a derivative thereof." Phenylbutacone is a pain killer and stimulant, the track said.

Expansion Teams Stock Rosters In Cage Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm very happy with our selections," said John Kerr.

"I'm all excited," said Larry Costello.

Kerr, coach of the new Phoenix Suns in the National Basketball Association, and Costello, his counterpart with the new Milwaukee franchise, both reacted favorably Monday to the players they picked up from the established teams in the league's expansion draft.

Phoenix obtained such players as Dick Van Arsdale and Emmette Bryant from New York, Gail Goodrich from Los Angeles, McCoy McLemore from Chicago, Dick Snyder and Gene Tormohlen from St. Louis and George Wilson from Seattle.

Milwaukee drafted, among others, Fred Hetzel of San Francisco, Wayne Embry from Boston, Len Chappell from Detroit, Guy Rodgers from Cincinnati and Jon McGlocklin from San Diego.

"We'll have a young, aggressive club," said Kerr, who signed with the Phoenix team after two years at the helm of the Chicago Bulls.

"We'll be very quick. I'm very pleased to have Van Arsdale, who will be used mostly at forward but can go both ways.

"Goodrich is a good leader at guard while Snyder is a big, strong guard. Right now, the center position is between Wilson and Tormohlen."

Costello, who retired as a player for Philadelphia after an early season injury, said: "I was surprised that Hetzel was available. He's 6-foot-8 and averaged 19 points last season. He can really put the ball in the basket.

"Rodgers will also be a key man for us. He has to handle the ball and didn't get much chance to do it with Oscar Robertson over there at Cincinnati. I'm also sure that Embry will play for us."

Each of the 12 established teams was allowed to protect seven of its players and, after one of those remaining was selected, could protect one more.

Tigers Get One Hit In Loss To Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — In the locker room of the Baltimore Orioles a "bullpen vacation schedule" is posted on the bulletin board offering seldom-used relief pitchers a chance to sign up for two weeks' vacation.

And after the Detroit Tigers were unable to scratch out more than a single hit in a 4-0 thrashing at the hands of a rookie pitcher Monday night, Manager Mayo Smith must wonder if his batting order has signed up.

Dave Leonhard, a former schoolteacher, allowed only a single by Jim Northrup with two out in the seventh inning as the Orioles coasted to their eighth consecutive victory and the 13th in their last 15 starts to widen their American League lead over the second-place Tigers to 2½ games.

"Outside of Baltimore," said Smith, "I don't know any club that's hitting. I think eventually the hitters will have to give in to the pitcher and shorten up, instead of trying to hit everything out of the ball park."

"Leonhard is just out of Triple-A ball and he has three or four pitches, not just a fast ball," Smith added. "They're all getting to it."

Leonhard, who issued two walks and hit two batters, was on the verge of quitting baseball at the end of the season after Baltimore sent him back to the minors at the beginning of April. But two weeks later he was recalled.

"I know it sounds phony," said Leonhard, "but I would have been more disappointed losing the shutout than the no-hitter. A no-hitter sounded like such a wild thing."

Northrup sliced a single to left connecting with a 1-2 pitch which Leonhard described as a "hanging fast ball."

"Naturally I was disappointed, but I wasn't crushed, the 26-year-old pitcher said.

"The pitch was on the outside of the plate," said Northrup. "I hit two balls pretty good, but they were both at (second base- man) Dave Johnson."

Dave May singled twice for two runs and Johnson scored once and drove in another as Baltimore scored one in the second, two in the fourth and another in the sixth.

The Tigers meet the Orioles again tonight in Baltimore.

Emerald Golf Team Triumphs

MANISTIQUE — In a dual meet played at Indian Lake Golf Club the Manistique Emerald golf team edged the Holy Name Crusaders squad 760-762.

Emerald Jack Magoon was the medalist with rounds of 44-42 for an 18-hole score of 86. Leading the Crusaders was Pete Ross with an 89.

Manistique — Magoon 44-42 — 86; Paquette 50-44-94; Wilson 43-44-87; Orhanen 48-43 — 91; Flodin 48-45-93; Fredrickson 51-48-99; Howe 52-43 — 100 and Carlson 56-54-110.

Holy Name — Ross 45-43-88; Manning 44-45-89; Peltin 48-44-92; Kleiman 47-46 — 93; DeMars 48-49-97; Young 47-48 — 95; Olinger 50-51-101 and O'Donnell 51-56-107.

Athletics Dump Twins; Mantle Passes Williams

OAKLAND (AP) — Reggie Jackson's fourth-inning home run off Dean Chance carried the Oakland Athletics past Minnesota 2-1 Monday night for their fifth straight victory.

Jackson led off the inning with his fifth smash of the season, breaking a 1-1 deadlock, and Jim Nash and four relief pitchers protected the margin.

Nash, 1-2, left with a leg injury after Bob Allison led off the seventh with Minnesota's sixth hit, and Ed Sprague, Paul Lindblad, Diego Segui and Tony Pierce were needed to wrap up the triumph.

Chance, 3-4, left for a pinch hitter in the seventh after giving up only three hits despite pitching with a hairline fracture of the jaw suffered when he was hit by a ball Saturday.

Harmon Killebrew hit his seventh homer in the first for the Twins, but the A's tied it in the second when Ramon Webster singled, stole second, took third when Chance threw wild trying to pick him off and scored on a ground out.

New York Yankee hitters — except for Mickey Mantle — also took an enforced rest as McDowell struck out 14 of them en route to setting a strike out record and pitching Cleveland to a 3-2 victory.

The strike outs, along with 16 in Sudden Sam's last outing, broke Bob Feller's American League mark of 28 for consecutive games, and came within one of Sandy Koufax' major league mark.

McDowell, pitching the Indians to their fifth straight victory, did give up seven hits, but only one did any damage — Mantle's 522nd career homer with a man on in the first inning, moving him into fourth place on the all-time list ahead of Ted Williams. Only Babe Ruth, Willie Mays and Jimmy Foxx are ahead of him.

Dave Leonard and Sam McDowell thus overshadowed Tommy John's three-hitter that pulled the Chicago White Sox by the California Angels 5-1.

In the only other American League game, the Oakland A's needed five pitchers to subdue Minnesota 2-1 for their fourth victory in a row.

McDowell continued Cleveland's move toward halting hitters by mowing down the Yankees after Mantle's homer produced the most runs off Indians' pitching in five games. But McDowell got those runs back by singling home the tying and winning runs off Mel Stottlemyre during a three-run third inning.

Only in the ninth did the Yankees get another chance when a single and two walks loaded the bases with one out, but McDowell got two pinch hitters on a pop up and a fly out for his third victory in four decisions.

John fell behind in the second inning on Bubba Morton's first homer of the season, but from there had little trouble running his record to 3-0.

Rookie Bill Melton put him ahead by singling in two unearned runs in the fourth inning off Rickie Clark after Bobby Knoop's error, and Bill Voss doubled in a run in the ninth and Tom Cullen followed with his first homer.

Astros Celebrate Mays' Birthday; Down Giants

By The Associated Press

Roy Hofheinz presented Willie Mays with an Astrodomed birthday cake, but Denny Lemaster wasn't giving away a thing.

Hofheinz, the Texas-thinking owner of the Houston Astros, helped the Giant slugger celebrate his 37th birthday in the Astrodomed Monday night. He gave Mays a cake weighing 569 pounds, one for every one of his career homers.

Then the game started and Willie might have been back in the dressing room eating his cake for all the hitting he did. He went 0-for-3 at the plate as Lemaster shackled the Giants and Rusty Staub and his teammates poured it on for a 10-2 Houston victory.

The cake, according to those who did the counting, was eight feet square and contained 3,800 eggs. Hofheinz also gave Mays a couple of gallons of champagne, which he thoughtfully shared with his fellow Giants to drown their post-game sorrows.

Staub, spraying hits with abandon, drove in six runs for the Astros with a double and three singles. Gaylord Perry, 2-2, was the victim of seven runs in the first two innings. Lemaster gave up the Giants' only run on Willie McCovey's seventh homer in the eighth.

John Bench broke out of a hitting slump with a homer, a single and a double in the Phillies' lopsided triumph. George Culver went the distance for Philadelphia despite giving up 10 hits. Pete Rose homered and extended his hitting streak for the Reds to 21 games.

Donn Clendenon's two-run homer in the fourth inning, his fourth of the season, gave Pittsburgh the slim margin it needed to beat the Braves. Jim Bunning allowed Atlanta just four hits, but had to leave in the eighth with a twisted ankle. The injury was not believed to be serious.

Lou Brock tripled in the 11th and scored on Orlando Cepeda's single to break up a tight duel between Bob Gibson of the Cards and Tom Seaver of the Mets. Gibson, striking out 11, gave up only three hits and none in the last seven innings. Seaver gave up just three hits after the second.

Clay Loses War In Court Battle

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Former world heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay has lost another round in his legal fight to avoid a prison sentence imposed for refusing induction into the Armed Forces.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here Monday upheld Clay's conviction and five-year prison term, rejecting his claims to be a conscientious objector because of being a Black Muslim minister.

Clay, who prefers his Muslim name of Muhammad Ali, was convicted on criminal charges by a Federal Court jury in Houston, Tex., last June 20. The judge gave him the maximum sentence—five years behind bars and a $10,000 fine.

"Being entirely satisfied that he has been accorded due process of law and without discrimination, we affirm this conviction," wrote Circuit Judge Robert A. Ainsworth Jr. of New Orleans.

Lawyers for Clay, who is free on $5,000 bond, have promised a fight to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Clay's battle with the Federal Courts began April 28, 1967, at the Houston Induction Center, where, in a highly publicized move, he refused to take the traditional one step forward which signifies entry into the military.

The influential U.S. boxing circles stripped Clay of his title when he defied the draft, but some countries of the world continue to recognize him as champion.

Last month the World Boxing Association completed an eight-man elimination tournament won by Jimmy Ellis, one of Clay's former sparring partners. However, another boxer, Joe Frazier, is recognized as the titleholder in five states.

In its opinion the court noted that Clay "claims to be a minister of the lost found nation of Islam (Black Muslims)" and maintains he was due a ministerial exemption from the draft.

Tracing Clay's activities back several years, the judges decided, "his vocation is clearly that of a professional boxer."

Clay contended that his constitutional rights had been violated by a systematic exclusion of Negroes from draft boards.

But the court quoted the National Advisory Commission on Selective Service as saying "there is no evidence that the variability of the Selective Service systems leads to any systematic biases against poor people, or Negroes."

23 Bell Offices In Michigan Are Still On Strike

LANSING (AP) — Operators in 23 of Michigan Bell Telephone Co.'s 39 Michigan exchanges remained off the job today despite a recommendation of their national leadership that they return to work.

National officials of the Communications Workers of America met with representatives of the Michigan units in Lansing Monday to urge a return to work in line with a national CWA membership vote Sunday.

Michigan CWA members had rejected the new contract offer.

A midmorning check by Michigan Bell showed 23 exchanges still without regular operators, who declined to cross picket lines set up by striking Western Electric Co. workers.

A Bell spokesman said seven offices were struck in Detroit as well as in Ann Arbor, Wyandotte, Plymouth, Monroe, Royal Oak, Pontiac, Port Huron, Mount Clemens, Saginaw, Flint, Bay City, Bad Axe, Jackson, Iron Mountain, Marquette and Traverse City.

Pickets are Western Electric employees at all offices except those in Detroit, Royal Oak, Mount Clemens and Flint.

Normal work has resumed at 16 exchanges in Battle Creek, Benton Harbor, Escanaba, Big Rapids, Cadillac, Hillsdale, Newberry, Niles, Grand Rapids, Reed City, St. Ignace and Sault Ste. Marie.

Pickets Up At Escanaba

Western Electric employees began picketing Michigan Bell's Escanaba office at 12:10 p.m. today.

The picket lines were being honored by Michigan Bell employees. Escanaba employees of Michigan Bell did not return to work this afternoon across picket lines after leaving the office for lunch.

Employees of Western Electric and Michigan Bell in Escanaba are members of Communications Workers of America Local 4090. They were ordered back to work by the International Executive Board, although the nationwide contract reached was not ratified in Michigan.

Western Electric employees refused to honor the international order. Pickets also were set up this morning at Iron Mountain and Marquette.

Learn Leadership:

Area High School Students 'Run' City Government

The education of youth to assume the responsibilities of leadership and good citizenship in a free society achieved a climax today when government students of the Area Public High School "took over" Escanaba's city government.

The experience had its beginning in studies starting with the school year, and includes the election of a "city council" and the naming of department heads and city officers to administrative positions.

Members of the "council" were elected by the students last Wednesday, said Lowell Nordgren, Area Public High School government instructor. They are:

Mayor Richard Anderson, and Council members Sharon Bittner, Corky Mroczkowski, Carol Rogers and Ken Turner.

The city manager is Mark Neumeier, clerk-treasurer Jean Killmar, and municipal judge Bryan Bender. Other municipal positions were filled by:

Mary Bisdee, city assessor; Connie Osier, controller; Ray Young, superintendent of engineering; George Bonfeld, chief of police; Larry Anderson, fire chief; Betty Stoneclift, superintendent of public works; Mark Swanson, superintendent of the electrical department; and Pat Rogers superintendent of the water and sewage department.

Swimming Pool
The young people this morning visited the offices to which they were appointed and conferred with adults who now fill those positions for the City of Escanaba. There they were briefed in the responsibilities of their work before they gathered at the City Hall for a meeting of their "city council."

had fought cancer for two years. Her husband, former Gov. George C. Wallace, was expected to win the 32 Democratic convention delegates even though he is a third-party presidential candidate.

Ohio interest centers on the Democratic contest between incumbent Sen. Frank J. Lausche and John J. Gilligan, Cincinnati city councilman and former congressman.

Ohio voters also are selecting 115 Democratic convention delegates and 58 Republican delegates.

In Florida, the key contest is for the Senate seat being vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers.

Motorcycle Taken In Wells B&E

A breaking and entering and theft of a motorcycle from Dave's Body Shop, Wells, remained under investigation today by State Police.

The breaking and entering was reported Monday. Officers said someone pried the hasp off a large door on a storage garage behind the main garage. The motorcycle was blue and had a dealer license plate, officers said.

Larceny of six or seven batteries from Farm Site Implement Co., also is under investigation. Owner Llewellyn Larson, Rte. 1, Escanaba, told police the six volt batteries, some new and some used, were taken between Friday and Sunday.

ESCANABA AREA HIGH SCHOOL music department will present its annual spring public concert at the William W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium at Escanaba Area Junior High School at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. The concert is free but an offering will be taken for a scholarship to the summer music camp. Checking over the score of a Schubert Mass in preparation for the concert are, from left, front row: Conrad Beck, director; Sue Fletcher, Diane Coplan, Mark Setherlund, Robert Chase, back row, Al Gossan, Jim Moore and Mike LeVecque. (Daily Press Photo)

School Ensembles Popular In Area

Small ensembles are an integral part of the Escanaba Area Public Schools Music Department, reports Conrad Beck, department head.

Beginning with the first semester and continuing through the entire year, the Senior High School Choral directed by Beck is asked to sing at various church and civic functions. Most recently, they appeared at the district governor's banquet of the Rotary International Convention. They also appeared this week before the WSCS convention held at Central Methodist Church.

The ensembles, one which is an established part of the Junior High music program, will be heard in the music department's annual Spring Concert Thursday, May 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Wm. W. Oliver Auditorium.

Mrs. Ruth Chase's Junior High Choral, which was awarded a Division I rating at the Junior High Festival held in Escanaba last Saturday, has proved a popular addition to their program, and provides an additional outlet for the more gifted vocal students at this level. They will present a program of madrigal and "pop" selections.

The 34-voice Senior High School Choral was also awarded a Division I rating at their festival. The group was asked to present a demonstration on vocal and rehearsal techniques at the festival. One-half of the Choral, participating as a Madrigal group, was awarded the honor of "Outstanding Vocal Ensemble" for the eighth consecutive year in February.

The Choral will sing a sacred double choir number by Pachelbel and several Robert DeCormier arrangements featuring Bryan Bender and Tim Brostrom as soloists.

Admission to the concert is free but an offering will be taken for the summer Music Camp Scholarship fund. The public is cordially invited to attend.
